19th October, 2007

Dear Principal,

Code Warriors, the computer club of Delhi Public School, Vasant Kunj is organizing Code Wars 2007 – The Sixth Annual Inter-School Technology symposium, on the 16th and 17th of November, 2007. After the resounding success of last year's event, we invite your school to participate and contribute to making this year's event successful.

The symposium will consist of a number of events, including programming, quizzing, group discussion and web designing, the details of which are enclosed. The participants will be judged not only on the basis of their preparation, but creativity and innovation also.

Your school is requested to register through the enclosed registration form or through the Code Warriors website (www.code-warriors.org) latest by 1st November 2007.

The list of rules as well the schedule and other details are enclosed. We look forward to seeing your school at the event.

Yours sincerely,

Principal,
Delhi Public School,
